1. CHARACTER OF A HAPPY MAN

Central Idea Of the Poem

This poem is written by well-known poet 'Henry Wotton'. This is very meaningful poem. This poem shares secret of a happy life. A truly happy person leads an honest life. He is jealous of none. He is content with whatever he has. He is not a slave of his passions. He prays to God daily and follows the path of goodness.

2. DEATH THE LEVELLER

Central Idea Of the Poem

This poem is written by well-known poet 'James Shirley'. This is very meaningful poem. The poem tells us that death is all powerful. It treats everybody equally. It spares none. All have to bow before the power of death sooner or later. Only the good deeds of a person are remembered after death. So we must be noble in our actions.

3. A BALLAD OF SIR PERTAB SINGH

Central Idea Of the Poem

This poem is written by well-known poet 'Sir Henry Newbolt'. The poem brings out the folly of the Hindu caste system. All men are equal in the eyes of God. No one is high or low by caste. Humanity is the only true caste. A caste that divides men from men can't be called a true caste.

4. RAZIA, THE TIGRESS

Central Idea Of the Poem

This poem is written by well-known Poet 'Keki N. Daruwala'. The poem brings out the dangers to our wildlife and natural resources. Man has been cutting the trees for his selfishness. The poor wild animals have nowhere to live. They live in the danger of poachers/hunters.

5. WHERE THE MIND IS WITHOUT FEAR

Central Idea Of the Poem

This poem is written by well-known poet 'Rabindranath Tagore'. The poet prays to God to turn his country into a heaven of freedom. He prays that his countrymen should give up all evils. They should not be narrow-minded. They should not be divided on the basis of caste and creed, region and religion. Only then they can get the real freedom.
